

CABINET MAKER-MASON

NATURE OF WORK IN THIS CLASS:

This is skilled work in the construction, maintenance and repair of a variety of high grade furniture and concrete structures.

Employees in this class perform the full range of skilled work under general supervision.

ILLUSTRATIVE EXAMPLES OF WORK: (Any one position may not include all duties listed, nor do the examples cover all duties which may be performed.)

Constructs and repairs wooden articles, such as office furniture, cabinets and high grade furniture using woodworking machines and handtools.

Lays concrete blocks and hollow tiles and poured concrete for the construction, alteration and repair of walls, partitions, sidewalks and foundations.

Makes outline or dimensions of parts on paper or lumber stock, according to blueprint or drawing specification.

Sets up and operates such woodworking machines as power saws, jointer, mortiser, tenoner, molder, and shaper to cut and shape parts from sketch.

May coat assemble articles with materials, such as stain, varnish, or paint, by dipping, brushing or spraying.

May install hardware, such as hinges, catches and drawer pulls.

Performs related duties as required.

MINIMUM KNOWLEDGE, ABILITIES AND SKILLS:

Knowledge of the methods, practices, tools, equipment and materials used in cabinet making and masonry trades.

Ability to read, interpret and work from sketches, layouts, blueprints, or drawing specifications.

Ability to lay blocks and tiles in accordance with established specifications.

Ability to make outline, dimension or parts on paper or lumber stock, according to blueprints or drawing specifications.

Ability to understand and follow oral and written instructions.

Ability to work effectively with the public and employees.

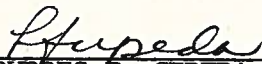

Ability to apply safe work practices on the job.

Skill in cabinet making trade.

MINIMUM EXPERIENCE AND TRAINING:

- (a) Four years of experience in the construction, maintenance and repair of a variety of high grade furniture and concrete structures; or
- (b) Any equivalent combination of experience and training which provides the minimum knowledge, abilities and skills.

ESTABLISHED: July, 1980

LOURDES F. CEPEDA, Acting
Executive Director,
Civil Service Commission