Nature of work

This is para-professional nutrition services work assisting nutritionists in providing clinical services to low risk, low income clients especially at maternity or pediatric primary health care clinics such as the Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) Clinic. An employee in this class performs routine technical support functions and works under the close supervision of a professional nutritionist following established guidelines and protocols.

Illustrative Examples of Work

Assists and may conduct group or individual education sessions to low risk clients on basic nutrition practices; demonstrates healthful methods of food preparation, meal planning and economical practices for food purchasing; assists in preparing and implementing nutrition education lesson plans and materials to fit the ethnicity, language reading level and food habits of the target population. Conducts assessments by obtaining client information on nutrition or dietary habits according to established guidelines and may determine the program eligibility of clients according to established residency, client category, income and nutrition risk standards; refers clients with health, nutrition or dietary problems to a nutritionist for individual counseling; weighs and measures clients using standard guidelines for anthropometric measurement and identifies potential nutritional risk. Prepares appropriate records for documenting client's preliminary assessment data, nutrition services contacts, and pertinent medical and/ or personal information. Assists with clinic administrative duties such as appointment scheduling, transportation arrangement, and client referrals; assesses and facilitates the client's potential eligibility and need for other public health nutrition assistance and/or services.

Knowledge, Abilities & Skills

Knowledge of the basic principles and practices of applied nutrition. Knowledge of family meal planning, food purchasing, food preparation, and budgeting. Ability to communicate effectively. Ability to work effectively with the public and employees. Ability to perform arithmetic computations. Ability to use a personal computer and other office equipment. Skill in client interviewing, weighing and measuring clients and recording information accurately. Skill in the safe operation of a motor vehicle.

Minimum Educational Requirements

All new employees (meaning not a current government of Guam employee to include reemployment/re-appointment eligibles), shall be required to have a high school diploma or equivalent as allowed by Public Law 29-113 when applying for a position, with the exception of those positions listed on the list approved by the DOA Human Resource Manager.

Documentation Requirements

Applicants claiming educational accomplishments are required to submit official or verified copies of transcripts or diplomas. The diploma, degree, or credits required must come from an educational institution that is accredited or recognized by either its government or a government recognized accrediting agency. This applies to all new employment after October 1, 2008 pursuant to Public Law 29-113. If you wish to claim for any preference points, please read the employment application General Instruction page for additional information. If you have any questions, please contact the Recruitment Branch at 475-1141/1128/1120.

NUTRITION ASSISTANT I

Suitability Determination Form

Your employment application will not be deemed completed unless the Suitability Determination Form is completely filled out, signed and dated. If it is not complete or missing from your application, your application for this position will be rejected. Please pay particular attention to question #2. If you answer "yes", you must attach your police clearance that is no older than one (1) month from the date of submitting your application. In addition, please resubmit an updated Suitability form if anything occurred that warrants updating your responses on your Suitability Form after you have submitted your application.

Prohibition Pursuant to P.L. 28-98

No person convicted of a sex offense under the provision of chapter 25 of Title 9 GCA, or an offense as defined in Article 2 of Chapter 28, Title 9 GCA in Guam, or an offense in any jurisdiction which includes, at a minimum, all of the elements of said offenses, or who is listed on the Sex Offender Registry shall work in any agency or instrumentality of the government of Guam.

Examination Requirements

A written test is not required. Applicants will be rated on a scale between 70.00 and 100.00 percent on the basis of their training, education and experience in relation to the requirements of the position.

Interviewing Procedures

A personal interview or interview by telephone (if off-island) will be held by the appointing authority or his or her designee for all eligibles referred via certification.

Employment Medical Examination

All applicants accepting employment must undergo a medical examination and be declared by the physician as capable of performing the duties of the position being hired for.

Work Eligibility

When offered a position, you will be required to provide proof of identity and eligibility for employment in the United States as condition of employment.

Drug Screening

Applicants selected for and offered employment with the Government of Guam shall undergo and pass a mandatory drug test before being employed. This also applies to employees selected for Tested Designated Position (TDP). Failure to submit or pass such drug test shall be grounds for rescinding the offer of appointment.

Police & Court Clearances Requirements

If selected for this position, your selection will be conditional pending submission of a recent police and court clearance, and taking and passing a drug test (see Drug Screening section of the announcement). The hiring department will mail a letter to you explaining these requirements. You will have five (5) business days from the postmarked date of your letter to submit police and court clearances that are no older than one (1) month from the date of your letter. The cost of the clearances is your responsibility. If you have already submitted clearances with your employment application, you will not be required to resubmit as long as they meet the date criteria above. If you do not have any conviction or conditions that would warrant rescinding the job offer, and pass the drug test you will be notified of your start date.
