Any equivalent combination of experience and training which provides the minimum knowledge, abilities and skills.

Nature of work

This is routine technical employment service work in interviewing, counseling, and referring job applicants or in the processing and registration of alien laborers. Employees in this class perform routine employment service duties independently after initial training and work under closer supervision on a variety of more complex developmental assignments.

Illustrative Examples of Work

Assists applicants in filling out and updating work registration forms and conducts file searches of active and inactive applicant registration forms to match applicant's employability qualifications with current job openings; assists in interviewing applicants seeking employment and in assigning occupational codes and titles to coincide with the applicant's work history and education; assists in selecting and referring job seekers and welfare recipients either to suitable employment on the basis of qualifications or to needed training for subsequent employment. Assists in counseling job applicants having job choice or adjustment problems to identify the factors which influence these problems; assists applicants in determining and improving their employment capabilities; helps formulate vocational goals and plans directed to job placement; assists in maintaining records on counseled applicants and in following up on cases to determine whether satisfactory progress is being made toward vocational adjustment. Assists in the processing of applications from employers offering permanent or temporary jobs to alien workers; provides and disseminates routine information to employers and the public regarding employment of alien laborers; interviews and evaluates the training and experience of alien laborers to determine if they meet the employer job requirements. Assists in maintaining contacts with employers to obtain job orders for placement activities; develops job openings for disadvantaged persons and makes referral appointments for job applicants. Provides information to applicants on job requirements, occupational opportunities, training and rehabilitation facilities. Performs related duties as required.

Knowledge, Abilities & Skills

Ability to learn, interpret, and apply pertinent employment program laws, policies, procedures and guidelines. Ability to learn the techniques involved in employment interviewing, counseling, and placement. Ability to make decisions in accordance with appropriate program guidelines. Ability to work effectively with the public and employees. Ability to communicate effectively, orally and in writing. Ability to maintain records and prepare reports.

Minimum Educational Requirements

All new employment in the service of the government of Guam shall have, as a reasonable measure of job performance, minimum requirement of high school diploma or a successful completion of General Education Development (GED) test or any equivalent of a general education high school program, apprenticeship program or successful completion of a certification program, from a recognized, accredited or certified vocational technical institution, in a specialized field required for the job, pursuant to Public Law 29-113.

Documentation Requirements

To validate credentials you may claim, (e.g., High School Diploma, College Transcript, DD-214, etc.), an original or certified copy of the document(s) must accompany each employment application you are applying for with your legal signature. Applicants shall be responsible to provide all required documents for each employment application submitted and failure to provide proof may result in disqualification. For more information, please contact the Recruitment Branch at 475-1141/1128/1132.

Suitability Determination Form

Your employment application will not be deemed completed unless the Suitability Determination Form is completely filled out, signed and dated. If it is not complete or missing from your application, your application for this position will be rejected. Please pay particular attention to question #2. If you answer "yes", you must attach your police clearance that is no older than one (1) month from the date of submitting your application. In addition, please resubmit an updated Suitability form if anything occurred that warrants updating your responses on your Suitability Form after you have submitted your application.

EMPLOYMENT DEVELOPMENT WORKER I OPEN COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION

Prohibition Pursuant to P.L. 28-98

No person convicted of a sex offense under the provision of chapter 25 of Title 9 GCA, or an offense as defined in Article 2 of Chapter 28, Title 9 GCA in Guam, or an offense in any jurisdiction which includes, at a minimum, all of the elements of said offenses, or who is listed on the Sex Offender Registry shall work in any agency or instrumentality of the government of Guam.

Examination Requirements

Applicants will be rated on a scale between 70.00 and 100.00 percent on the basis of their training, education and experience in relation to the requirements of the position.

Interviewing Procedures

A personal interview or interview by telephone (if off-island) will be held by the appointing authority or his designee for all eligibles referred via certification.

Employment Medical Examination

All applicants accepting employment must undergo a medical examination and be declared by the physician as capable of performing the duties of the position being hired for.

Work Eligibility

When offered a position, you will be required to provide proof of identity and eligibility for employment in the United States as condition of employment.

Drug Screening

Applicants selected for and offered employment with the Government of Guam shall undergo and pass a mandatory drug test before being employed; this also applies to employees selected for Test Designated Positions (TDP). Failure to submit or pass such drug test shall be grounds for rescinding the offer of appointment. In addition, persons who have applied for, or are seeking reemployment/reappointment in the government and previously had a non-negative drug test result must meet certain conditions to be re-drug tested for employment. For more information, see DOA Circular 2023-014 located under the heading, "DOA HR Circulars", on the Resources page of the following website: www.hr.doa.guam.gov/resources.

Police & Court Clearances Requirements

If selected for this position, your selection will be conditional pending submission of a recent police and court clearance, and taking and passing a drug test (see Drug Screening section of the announcement). The hiring department will mail a letter to you explaining these requirements. You will have five (5) business days from the postmarked date of your letter to submit police and court clearances that are no older than one (1) month from the date of your letter. The cost of the clearances is your responsibility. If you have already submitted clearances with your employment application, you will not be required to resubmit as long as they meet the date criteria above. If you do not have any conviction or conditions that would warrant rescinding the job offer, and pass the drug test you will be notified of your start date.
