Counsels inmates in correctional institutions regarding parole; assists the inmate in devising parole plan; assists in coordinating institutional and parole plans and programs; refers prospective parolee to assisting agencies such as rehabilitation and employment services and community health centers; counsels individuals whose parole have been deferred, explains the reasons for deferral and suggests ways to prepare for the parole board review; presents a parole orientation to newly received inmates; counsels inmates on various problems. Performs a variety of investigations; investigates pre-parole requests to determine if plans are satisfactory; seeks complete information regarding employment prospects, residence situations, and social setting; investigates alleged violations of parole; contacts law enforcement agencies, relatives, friends, and others who might have knowledge of the parolee's behavior; arrests or causes the arrest of parole violators. Attends parole board meetings; prepares records and other information for the parole board to expedite their review of cases; delivers inmates to parole board meetings. Maintains records and prepares reports, such as chronological record, daily activity sheets, monthly activity reports, pre-parole investigation reports and suspension reports. Performs related duties as required.

Knowledge, Abilities & Skills

Knowledge of individual and group behavior with special emphasis on behavior deviations of persons who have been involved in criminal activities. Knowledge of casework principles and practices. Knowledge of community, social, and economic resources with emphasis on factors relating to crime. Ability to learn and apply the principles of criminology and penology. Ability to learn and apply the principles, methods and practices of investigation, supervision and reporting in parole work. Ability to make decisions in accordance with appropriate program guidelines. Ability to work effectively with disturbed and maladjusted individuals, other agencies, institutions, the public and employees. Ability to communicate effectively, orally and in writing. Ability to maintain records and prepare reports. Skill in the safe operation of a motor vehicle.

Minimum Educational Requirements

All new employment in the service of the government of Guam shall have, as a reasonable measure of job performance, minimum requirement of a high school diploma or a successful completion of General Education Development (GED) test or any equivalent of a general education high school program, apprenticeship program or successful completion of a certification program, from a recognized, accredited or certified vocational technical institution, in a specialized field required for the job, pursuant to Public Law 29-113.

Documentation Requirements

To validate credentials you may claim, (e.g., High School Diploma, College Transcript, DD-214, etc.), an original or certified copy of the document(s) must accompany each employment application you are applying for with your legal signature. Applicants shall be responsible to provide all required documents for each employment application submitted and failure to provide proof may result in disqualification. For more information, please contact the Recruitment Branch at 475-1141/1128/1274.

PAROLE OFFICER I OPEN COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION

Suitability Determination Form

Your employment application will not be deemed completed unless the Suitability Determination Form is completely filled out, signed and dated. If it is not complete or missing from your application, your application for this position will be rejected. Please pay particular attention to question #2. If you answer "yes", you must attach your police clearance that is no older than one (1) month from the date of submitting your application. In addition, please resubmit an updated Suitability form if anything occurred that warrants updating your responses on your Suitability Form after you have submitted your application.

Prohibition Pursuant to P.L. 28-98

No person convicted of a sex offense under the provision of chapter 25 of Title 9 GCA, or an offense as defined in Article 2 of Chapter 28, Title 9 GCA in Guam, or an offense in any jurisdiction which includes, at a minimum, all of the elements of said offenses, or who is listed on the Sex Offender Registry shall work in any agency or instrumentality of the government of Guam.

Examination Requirements

Applicants will be rated on a scale between 70.00 and 100.00 percent on the basis of their training, education and experience in relation to the requirements of the position.
